

BREAK THE BIAS “

Students of grades 9-12 immersed themselves into discussions about various topics based on unhealthy eating habits such as binge eating or emotional eating, insomnia and meditation.

The sessions opened a door for students to delve into a wide range of subjects with the assistance of various media, books, films, and other resources.

