

Serenity Serenade

A musical concert by students of grades 9-12, promoting mental well-being through powerful performances

An immersive art experience added to the event's impact, inspiring both students and teachers