

YOUTH MENTAL HEALTH DAY

19 September | Basketball court
Health and Mind club

This event highlighted the link between physical activity and mental well-being. Club members inspired their peers to stay active for better mental health

The event emphasized how movement can prevent mental health issues and foster hope, reminding everyone that where there is hope, there is life

